

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - November 2007

“ANTIQUES in the VALLEY” - 2008, OLEY, PA will bring together 60 of the most respected antique dealers into a new facility “The Oley Valley Middle School” (Located less than one mile from its former show site). This beautiful, air conditioned new facility was carefully chosen to afford dealers additional display space, as well as more comfortable shopping for the crowds attending the show.

Enthusiasm for the show , now in its fourth year, continues to escalate. Those in attendance frequently mention how they enjoy the friendly, rural atmosphere of the show and the many historical sites that can be visited in the Berks County area. Also mentioned is the great food and plenty of free, easy parking.

“ANTIQUES in the VALLEY”, as in the past, will feature a special loan exhibit in the lobby. In 2008 the focus will be on “Yesterdays’ Child”. Prior to today and the obsession with electronic technology, children of the 18th and 19th centuries assisted their parents with the many everyday chores. In past centuries, the Oley Valley was a very rural area and children’s lives centered around home, farm, school and church.

The show is open 11 am to 7 pm on Friday, June 20th and 10 am to 4 pm on Saturday the 21 st. Now held at the Oley Valley Middle School, 3247 Friedensburg Road, Oley, Pennsylvania 19547. Admission is $8.00 per person. A portion of the show proceeds will benefit Scholarships to worthy Oley Valley students.
